ORDER REGARDING SHACKLING AT PRETRIAL CONFERENCE

U.S. Marshals Action Required

A pretrial conference will be held in this matter on December 19, 2017. The U.S. Marshals have requested permission to restrain in-custody defendants using leg shackles during that hearing. The Court finds that there is a compelling government interest in ensuring the safety of all individuals in the courtroom, including defendants, counsel, and courthouse staff. There will be six in-custody defendants present at the hearing, along with five out-of-custody defendants. The U.S. Marshals also expect that family members or other members of the public may be present.

1 In addition, all in-custody defendants are facing a mandatory
2 minimum sentence of ten years based on the conspiracy charge reflected
3 in count one of the superseding indictment in this matter. Due to the 4 security risks presented by the many defendants and other individuals
5 who will be present in the courtroom and the nature of the charges in 6 this case, the Court finds that using leg shackles is the least
7 restrictive means possible for maintaining security and order in the 8 courtroom and accomplishing the Court's compelling interest in 9 ensuring the safety of everyone in the courtroom.

10 Accordingly, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED: At the December 19, 2017
11 pretrial conference, the U.S. Marshals shall place all in-custody
12 defendants in leg shackles during the hearing.

13 IT IS SO ORDERED. The Clerk's Office is directed to enter this
14 Order and provide copies to all defense counsel.

15 DATED this 19th day of December 2017.
